

Privacy Policy

Introduction

We use this privacy notice to disclose the privacy practices of Lime Health in accordance with privacy regulations, such as the Quebec's Act respecting the protection of personal information in the private sector, the Canadian Privacy Act and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). We aim to help you understand what personal data we collect, how we use it, and what control you have over it. This notice applies solely to data collected by Lime Health. This notice will define the following:

1. What personal data is collected from the website.
2. How personal data is collected, used, shared, stored, and otherwise processed.
3. The security procedures implemented to protect your data.
4. Your choices and rights regarding the use of your data.
5. How you can contact us for issues such as to correct inaccuracies of your data or to request the removal of your personal data.

Please read the following privacy notice to understand the processing, collection, sharing, protection, and your rights associated with your personal data.

Who We Are

Lime Health is a healthcare software company. It is our mission to connect patients with their care provider, and to do so we collect and use personal data that you provide.

For the purposes of this notice, we act as the "data controller." We take on this role as we determine how your personal data is used and processed.

We have appointed a Data Protection Officer or assisting with questions, requests, and complaints in regard to this privacy notice and the collection and processing of your personal data. For details on how to contact us, see the Contact Information section at the end of this notice.

Data We Collect

We have access to any data that you voluntarily provide via email, telephone, forms, chat functions, user registration, newsletter sign-up, contests, surveys, and other methods of data collection.

Through these means, we collect the following types of data:

- Full name
- Email address
- Username
- Phone number
- Information about any complaints, inquiries, and communication you make with us
- Details on services received from us
- IP address
- Browser version
- Other information that you share with us

How We Use Your Data

Your personal data may be used for the following purposes:

- Customization of content and user experience.
- Identity you when you use Lime Health web services.

- Account set up and administration.
- Conducting polls, surveys, and contests.
- Internal research and development.
- Legal obligations.
- Internal audits.
- Fulfillment of obligations outlined in any agreements with users.
- Gathering feedback and opinions on our provided services.
- Notification to users of changes to our services.
- Respond to your requests and comments.
- Process your transactions.

Legal Basis of Processing

We process personal data for purposes of our own legitimate interests, granted that those interests do not override any of our user's own interests, rights, and freedoms. This legitimate interest including processing for marketing, research, and business development purposes.

We also process personal data for other purposes with consent, but you have the right to withdraw consent to processing for specific purposes, as outlined below.

Specific Data Use

To fully access the website, you, as a user, can voluntarily register for an account by completing a registration form. Certain data is collected during this process, including your name and email address. This data is used to contact you, suggest appropriate products and services, and improve your user experience.

Personal data may be used without knowledge or consent in situations when legally required or permitted, or when personal data has been anonymized or pseudonymized, so it is no longer associated with the user. This means we have removed personally identifying information, so the data we're left with cannot be tied back to you as an individual.

How We Share Your Data

Personal data may be shared with regulators in compliance with legal regulations.

Personal data may also be shared with third parties when it is necessary to provide services to users, and/or for other legitimate interests. Third parties include service providers, professional advisors, and other members of Lime Health's network.

Third parties that may access personal data are fulfilling the following services: web hosting, IT and cloud services, advisory services, bug reporting, logs and analytics. These parties do not retain, share, or use personal data beyond the defined purpose of fulfilling the service.

We share only aggregated data with our partners. This data is not linked to the identity of any individual user.

We do not share any data with advertisers.

Where We Process Your Data

If you are visiting or using Lime Health's website and web services, be aware you are sending personal information to our servers located in Canada.

Under certain circumstances, your personal data that we collect may be transferred to other countries for various purposes outlined below.

Country	Data Category	Purpose
United States	Customer data	Bug reporting, analytics, logs
	Cookie data	Marketing, website functionality

We have implemented security measures and controls to ensure data remains appropriately protected in these jurisdictions.

How Long We Store Your Data

We will only retain personal data for the duration necessary to fulfill the purposes for which it was collected. Personal data may also be retained for longer periods if it is solely for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes, or statistical purposes. When defining the appropriate retention length, we adhere to relevant legal requirements.

How We Protect Your Data

Securing your data is a priority for us, while both online and offline. We have implemented appropriate safeguards to prevent personal data from being lost, misused, accessed, altered, or disclosed by unauthorized parties.

Employees and third parties are provided only with personal data on a need-to-know basis and only the minimum amount they require to complete their specific job. All employees are also subject to confidentiality agreements and undergo annual training on the proper handling of sensitive data.

Procedures have been developed and tested to handle a potential data breach. These procedures are designed to ensure affected individuals and regulators are notified of the breach and damages can be minimized.

Use of Cookies

Cookies are used on Lime Health's website and web services for various purposes. These "cookies" are data elements stored on your hard drive that allow us to improve your usage of our website. By using a cookie to identify you, you do not necessarily need to log in with a password more than once from the same browser, saving you time when accessing our site. In addition, we use cookies for storing and managing your preferences on the website, enabling content, and generally analyzing your usage. Usage of cookies may be linked to your personal data on the website. By using the website, you accept the use of cookies.

Your Rights Regarding Your Personal Data

We aim to maintain data that is accurate and up-to-date. Under the circumstance that your personal data changes, please notify us of any changes or update your data in your profile page.

In certain instances, you have the legal right to the following:

- Request all data we have collected about you, if any.
- Request correction to the personal data we have collected about you.
- Request we delete or remove personal data when there is no legitimate need for us to continue processing it.
- Object to the processing of personal data.
- Request transfer of your personal data.
- Opt out of contact with us at any time.
- Express any concern about any data we have collected about you.

To exercise these rights, please contact us via the email, mail, or phone information provided below in the "Contact Information" section.
